

A peeled Onion.

All that is left of Dick!"

(a-la-jim)

I wish I was a little rock

A-settin' on a hill;

A-doin' nothin' all day long

But just a-settin' still,

I wouldn't eat, I wouldn't drink,

I wouldn't even wash,

I'd set an' set a thousand years

An' rest myself, by gosh!

The Carrier Family
Rustin, May + Mr + Mrs. Carrier.

"Rusty"

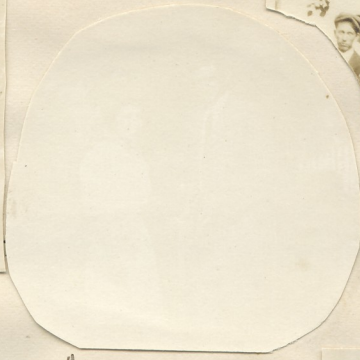

Eva Wills + I.

at Aunt Mammie's gate.

ROGEE'S
GALLERY

Bentley + Stuart in Scott's yard

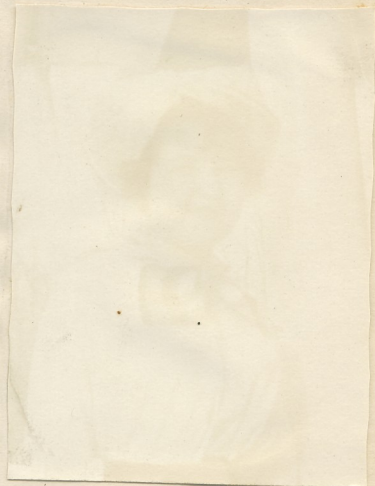

"me + Mrs. King"

Happy - just rec'd a check!!!

Willis Richardson
Amherst 1912

at Uncle Joe's 1910

Have one on me!!

Date

Felde + I in Dr. Kearfott's drug store, Amherst

Miss Jessie Burford entertained at the home of Miss Mary C. Ellis, on Monday, a number of the young Amherst people in honor of her guest, Miss Rucker, of Pedlar Mills, and Miss Emma Saundern, who expects to leave this week for her home in Nebraska. Many kinds of games were played in the moonlight, and during the evening there was a needle-threading contest, in which Miss Jane Cunningham won the prize for threading the greatest number of needles in a given time. Another contest which was much enjoyed, was that of guessing what book-titles certain pictures represented. In which Miss Eugenia Cox was awarded the prize and Miss Mary Whitehead won the booby.

At a late hour dainty and delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Emma E. Saunders of Omaha, Neb., through her aunt, Miss Mary Ellis, favored the Progress on Tuesday with a subscription for a year. Miss Saunders will be greatly missed in Amherst among the social circles as she was a prominent party in society and will also be missed by the Progress to which she added for some time great interest in its local columns.

No.

Chemical Reactions

Date

BERTHA

Behold! the "Fair Girl on the Fair Horse"! who has become so popular since her arrival in Aurient just a year ago the young folks
cannot have a hayride or picnic without her.

Her name is Bertha Pfister and the "K. K.'s" have often wondered if Hester should get mad would Bertha Pfister? (b. j.) This picture was taken on "Scott's Hill" and Bertha is trying to look stern because Bentley is watching. Notice how beautiful she is when she looks stern.

This next picture shows Bertha's lovely home with a most lovely road leading up to it. We

"K. K.'s" some parties dances
old ladies
ladies
would open doors

have had dances
and in their house.
and Pfister
throw
the
to us

and let us dance and sing to our hearts content.
The walk out to Bertha's in the moonlight and Judge Campbell's pines and our log fences will never be forgotten by any one of us. We'll talk about it until we are grey headed.

Wouldn't
you like to have a peaceful quiet home in the Blue Ridge
mountains as these pictures represent?

And wouldn't you like to know the people in these pictures? They are worth knowing. The top picture was taken in the front yard of the Pfister home. From left to right are Mrs.
Pfister, Groomsudder or grand mother, and Bertha.
with Cass the dog, and the cow.

Description
and
"Tan Girl",
again -
actually (I bet she ou' cause
She looks to shoot dout be - she looks
spite of holding speaking of the here she is

- but this time
dressed in white has a tan belt she is tan crazy)
as if she is fixing Bentley - but I lieve she will - so week, in the gun she's I wonder what she aint be shot that day. "Brothers" are mighty nice, aint they Bertha?

Date July 1913.

These ladies on the other page couldn't possibly get without two strong & work and life them. men Bertha's along these good men for them enjoy with. These are father and "grofadder", whom we enjoyed so much when they boarded at the "Ellis Hotel" last summer. "Grofadder" taught me how to "Donner vetter para plu" meaning "Thunder and umbrellas!!" The Pfister are from Switzerland and have only been in America seven years. They deserve great credit for coming over here and being contented strange and as well as

In this picture is und mudder feeding Grosmudder in a country succeeding they have. lower Grosmudder Pfister the chicken loves "Bertha" so she saves her a cup of cream every day and one night she when I spent the night with Bertha and we were sitting by an open fire in the parlor talking (Bertha what were we talking about - I wonder) she brought us some apples that she had peeled + sliced for us.

50!

Upon my Amherst An
 undertook to chum for standing in Wood's store
 we saw a dressed in ~~the~~

down the street and Aunt Maude said "Here, Emma is Bessie Scott ——— Bessie let me introduce you to at first sight with me. Thrusly began a "chumpship" to success that were soon made up and our "love" was

The picture in the upper left hand corner is the Scott write a book on all the good times I have had there This picture just below shows you a fair sample of the young crowd who like to gather

 at this house.
 From left to write right are:
 Bertha Pfister,
 Bessie Scott, Betty
 Morris, Emma Saunders and Hester Scott. Notice
 the boy draped over the post, with the smile that wont come off on his face. He deserves special mention because although he is only twelve years old he was a standby for all the girls and was a protector on the darkest nights. His name is Samuel Scott and he is an active member of the "K. K's."

Date June 1913. — (note - these pictures were taken just before graduation when Bentley + Stuart both called on Hester, and Bertha + I accidentally walked in on them.)

OTT

of arrival in Miss Mamie
to select a
one. We were front of the one day when young girl blue coming comes the girl I want you to go with. Her name to my niece Emma Saunders from the West." It was love that has lasted three years - broken only by a few stronger than ever.

house which has been a second home to me. I could

"CHUMP"

Here is the girl Miss Mamie selected for me to share my joys and sorrows with during my sojourn in Acushet. This picture was taken right after I shampooed her beautiful long black tresses.
She doesn't always allow her locks to float around like that. Just notice her sweet smile! - two young men fought hard to win that smile - and I bet I can guess who was "Victor". (B.J.)

Words can not express how I have enjoyed my daily walks and talks with Bess - and the many times we strolled out on this hill and especially the moonlight night we sat on this fence, gloomily talking over our troubles and trying to make light of them when suddenly the goodies fell out of our conversation and only the hills were left

HIGH SCHOOL

Nothing like it.

Although my High School days were over - somehow I took great interest in the little school building around the corner on Baptist Hill. This is a front view of it - taken on a school day when Jack Jones was very much in evidence. Edith Brooks can be seen smiling at us from the porch. Misses Pannerson and Bland Campbell are sitting in the window.

Bentley and I used to have good times going to the Choral Club meetings at the little school.

Here is a picture of the four

~~Jack~~ Jones - Stuart - Bentley - Hamet Whitten

boy-graduates of the Anheist High School - June 1913 - and 'tis said they graduated from a first-class matrimonial bureau instead of a High School. Evidently Eddie Jones did - because his Marguerite Campbell is now Mrs. Edward Jones - but as for the others - they are still struggling.

Date

June
1913.

What do you think of this bunch? They are High School girls and boys. From left & write are, girls: Hester Scott, Mary Moore - Settle Ruth Cunningham + Susie Moore - boys: Stuart - Eddie Jones Hamet Whitten, and Bentley Morris.

Last Friday night the Junior Class of the Amherst High School delightfully entertained in honor of Miss Ruth Cunningham. During the evening a contest was held and prizes awarded to Miss Hester Scott and Mr. S. F. Poindexter, Jr. Those present were:—Misses Fitzgerald, Hester Scott, Susie and Mary Moore, Mary Settle and Ruth Cunningham and Messers. S. F. Poindexter, Jr., Bentley Morris, Stuart Scott, Hamet Whitten, Eddie Jones and Thomas Cunningham.

Behold!! the wonderful well known - much talked about - much abused and much chased after (by the girls) Prof. "Sambo" Poindexter with his well-liked - much admired assistants Miss Annie Fitzgerald, of the High School Faculty. Notice the pin in his tie. It has an "E" on it - which stands for Ethel - his friend and "confidante" who used to get so mad at "Punnie" she vowed every two minutes she'd never speak to him.

Gaze upon the foundation for a brand new High School - which Mr. Poindexter worked up to a sure proposition Stuart + Hamet seem to be inspecting the work. Mr. Boston Williams can be seen in the distance!