

Springtime Collection 2012

At left, from the collection of Gertrude Pryor. Blue lace dress; short sleeves; flares to bottom; likely handmade. ca. 1930. 2000.5.1

Below, also from Gertude Pryor's collection. Green chiffon dress; flowered pattern; thin shoulder straps; flares to bottom; has belt/tie and scarf of same material. ca. 1930. 2000.5.2

At left, Hat. Beige straw with ruffled body; silk flowers attached. 1950s-1960s. B85.301

This china teapot belonged to the great grandmother (Sarah Elizabeth Richardson Hunt) of Eloise Gredler Purple flower transfer pattern; teapot is footed; no maker's marks on bottom; top has a flower-shaped handle. ca.1880s-1890s. 2004.01.01.4

Donated by Edna Stinson, this handpainted paper fan incorporates floral pastels with an oriental design B85.314.1

Donated by Richard H. Miller, this golden warbler is from a collection of sixteen clay models of birds of Amherst county made by Mrs Ernest Schaar; hand molded and sun dried — not fired in a kiln. 89.22.16a

At left, donated by Josephine Woods, this is the graduation dress of Mrs. Beulah Bailey, who graduated from Pleasant View High School in 1929; cream chiffon flapper dress.; fabric flower design sewn onto left shoulder and a loose scarf to same shoulder on back; sash ties around waist. 2000.10.1

Below, white cotton dress with lace insets at yoke and bottom in a diamond design; embroidery on front. ca. 1890. B85.177

Lower left, this cup and saucer in the Cherry pattern of Blue Ridge China was donated by Ann Whitley. 2004.04

Above, donated by Richard H. Miller, this male oriole is from a collection of sixteen clay models of birds of Amherst county made by Mrs Ernest Schaar; hand molded and sun dried — not fired in a kiln. 89.22.1

Below, detail from “Tuesday” kitchen towel for Love, Linens and Lace, exhibit 2006

Above, this detail is from a collection of thirty-one handkerchiefs from the mid-1900s, donated by Elizabeth “Dolly” Payne. 2002.12.15

Below, cover of a yearbook from the collection of Seminole Trail Garden Club. The collection dates from 1944 through 1957. 92.111

