Location: US 50 E for 2.6 miles to a right turn on Union Hill Rd (604). Go 0.6 mile on Ebenzer Rd (604) and drive 2.2 miles to the intersection of Higginbotham Rd (624) and Earley Farm Rd (624). Proceed 4.75 miles on Earley Farm Rd, past Edloe Lane at Earley Farm, to Fairmount church site on the right (2.7 miles from Edloe Ln) at a sharp right bend where the pavement ends. A fence post with a "no trespassing" sign identified the site which is wooded and overgrown. There are many gravesites and a few headstones here. An earlier graveyard is said to be located on another slope further in the woods. Local assistance will be required to find this site. The two graveyards were established by Cherokee Indian families. Raleigh Pinn, a patriot and soldier of the Revolutionary War is likely buried here as he owned land at this location. (See Fairmount Baptist on Buffalo Ridge and Fairmount Baptist on Stapleton, page 144, Rev. Ed., 1999 and this edition.)

215. Pryor Creek Road - Unknown

Location: US 60 W to Puppy Creek Road (610) on the left. Turn left onto Puppy Creek Rd and go for 6.5 miles to Pryor Creek Road (754). Turn left on Pryor Creek Rd and go for 1 mile to a farm gate on the left. The gate is tied up and is not hung. This tract is currently owned by Dustin Pryor. It is also believed to be a part of Pryor's Vale and also has been called the "Jennings Place." The tract was owned by B.H. & Peggy Pryor Campbell and also known as Puppy Creek Farm. Proceed to the top of the hill bearing left. At the top you will see two walnut trees. At the base of the walnut tree on the left is the remaining field stone marker. This was a small cemetery with only 4-5 stones originally. Possibly there are Pryors buried here. It is reported that Becky Pryor's father-in-law, Cabel Pryor, came here to a funeral in his youth, early in the 1900's. Site is in a pasture and is not fenced.

N 37 36.288 W 079 12.677 Elevation 925

It is also reported that the ashes of B.H. Campbell, Jr., (died May 29, 1988, at age 44) and his wife, Peggy Pryor Campbell (died April 28, 2007, at age 66) are spread on this hilltop.

216. Pryor Farm - Unknown

Location: US 60 W to Puppy Creek Road (610) on the left. Turn left onto Puppy Creek Rd and go for approx. 6 miles to a brick house (box 2158) on the right, opposite Puppy Creek Farm Rd. Go onto private drive and into the field through a closed gate. At the fork in the trail, go straight. You will need someone to guide as the farm is laden with trails in and out of the woods. The site of this burial area is on what was known as the Alley Hudson Place and may have some association with William Pryor (1752) – who owned the adjoining farm, now called Walnut Hill Farm circa 1813 and who may have owned this site at one time. This burial area may contain Hudsons. Nearby are the remains of an old home site, the chimney partially remaining. It is reported that Robert Abner Franklin lived in this house at one time and 2 of his children were born here. The burial area is to the right of a trail in the woods not far from the cabin. It consists of 12 or more fieldstone markers among the trees.

256. Sweet Briar Plantation Burial Grounds

Location: US 29 South Business to a right turn at Sweet Briar Drive at the main entrance (east) to Sweet Briar College. Follow Sweet Briar Drive to Boathouse Road. Turn left off Boathouse Road onto a gravel/dirt road that goes across the dam between 2 lakes. Take the right fork up the hill at the sign. This road leads into the burial grounds. A plaque on a large rock reads" Sacred Resting Place Of Unknown Founders Who Labored To Build What Has Become Sweet Briar College. We Are In Their Debt. There are some 60 fieldstone markers and several gravesites. The slave cemetery was probably established by the Elijah Fletcher family ca. 1830. Ancestors of the Jasper Fletcher family may be buried here.
